

The dangers of media consolidation are clear as Sinclair Broadcasting will be forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

Sinclair's free use of the public airwaves obligates the company by law to serve the public interest. Narrow focus based on very questionable, inflammatory information is not in the public interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
